

Movado Herald Square - 2013.

This concept continues to break down the barrier between consumer and retailer. The shop envelope folds in on itself and begins to express the purity and openness of its inner self. Merchandising opportunities are provided in both the media wall and the modified display cases wrapped by the shop envelope.

